NORTH CAROLINA Blueberry FESTIVAL MAGAZINE

Saturday, June 15, 2013

The 10th Annual North Carolina Blueberry Festival will be held on Saturday, June 15, 2013 in Historic Downtown Burgaw. The Festival celebrates the historic, economic, and cultural significance of blueberries in the southeastern region of our state. The first cultivated blueberry production in North Carolina began in the Pender County area in the 1930's. Today, Pender County ranks second in blueberry production for the entire state.

Celebrate 10 Years of the Festival and Participate in this Commemorative Magazine!

Distributed throughout Pender, New Hanover, Brunswick, Onslow, Sampson and Bladen counties.
