DEBUT EDITION JAN. 27, 2013

"Set goals for where you are in your life now, not who you were in the 1980s."

- Carrie Harper,
Fitness Columnist

The typical new-year resolver will run to the gym for their first day, then will then do one of these things:

1. Quit ...
2. Overtrain ...
3. Get overwhelmed ...

Be a smart, fit person with goals that are specific, measurable, attainable, relevant and time-bound.

Columnist Carrie Harper tells readers how, in the debut edition of Q.

Red Snapper's Lin Biar shares with Q readers a staple in his restaurant: the A La Grecque sauce.

With the rice pre-cooked, and his spices ready to go, it takes less than 10 minutes for Biar to prepare Snapper a la Grecque, and that's from fileting the beautiful, big red snapper to presenting the finished dish with freshly made sauce.

Biar offers a few tips for novices trying this at home, and the full recipe in the debut edition of Q.

My Life In The Fast Lane

Dan Pastorini was an NFL superstar and Drag Racing icon. He had Hollywood starlets on his arm and a legion of fans in the palms of his hands. Pastorini lived on the edge and played on the brink. He changed the way NFL quarterbacks played the game. He beat "Big Daddy" Don Garlits and all of drag racing's best. He married a Playboy model and posed for Playgirl. His life was indulgent, brilliant, cursed and humbling. Dan Pastorini never has told the whole story. Until now.

Recruited:

The excitement of a Bills vs Oilers game creates a new fan of American football.

Nicaragua-born Rommell Arias grew up knowing little about American football. That's not evident from his personalized 13-by-14-foot room which includes numerous autographed photos, a built-in marble-topped bar and well-stocked, inset beverage cooler. Meet Rommell in the Spring issue of Q Magazine.

Sulfur put Freeport on the Texas map

Freeport, Texas, has been named one of the most beautiful cities in the state, according to a recent survey by the Texas Department of Transportation. The survey, which was conducted by a team of experts, ranked Freeport as one of the top 10 most beautiful cities in the state. The survey took into account a variety of factors, including the city's location, its history, and its natural beauty. Freeport, which is located on the Gulf of Mexico, is known for its beautiful beaches, its rich history, and its vibrant culture. The survey results are a testament to the city's many strengths and its status as a premier destination in Texas.

Clyde Cone adds four to sales staff

THE BRAZOS BECKONED: Tales from Brazoria County's Past

Brazoria County's own
Local author Marie Beth Jones shares stories of kindness, happiness, heartache and scandal in her third book. The stories are true, taken from county records, old newspapers, individual's memories, oral histories and letters. It's a fun and fascinating look into the lives of the people who made their homes here in the 1800s and early 1900s.

The Facts NEW TO BOOKSTORE

TAKING FLAK: My Life In The Fast Lane

Dan Pastorini was an NFL superstar and Drag Racing icon. He had Hollywood starlets on his arm and a legion of fans in the palms of his hands. Pastorini lived on the edge and played on the brink. He changed the way NFL quarterbacks played the game. He beat "Big Daddy" Don Garlits and all of drag racing's best. He married a Playboy model and posed for Playgirl. His life was indulgent, brilliant, cursed and humbling. Dan Pastorini never has told the whole story. Until now.
